Legal matters

- If you are under 18 years old you will need your parents' consent to marry and by law you cannot be married in the UK until you are 16.
- Although same-sex marriage legislation is now in force, at the moment it is not legally possible for same-sex couples to marry in the Church of England.
- It is possible to get married in a church away from where you live if you have a certain kind of connection with it. Check the Church of England website and explain to the Parish Clerk.
- The wedding must take place between 8am and 6pm on any day.
- There are special guidelines on marriage in the church if you are divorced. You will need to talk to the Rector about your situation to explore the possibilities for you.
- Most Church of England marriages will require banns to be published before the wedding can take place. You won't need to arrange banns until about four months before your wedding date.
- If there is not enough notice given for the banns to be read before the marriage is due to take place, or in the case of the marriage of people who are foreign nationals, or if one or both of you does not live in England or Wales, it is recommended that the Licence procedure be used rather than banns.
- There are some circumstances in which you may need a Special Licence, Common Licence or a Superintendent Registrar's Certificate to marry in church.
- Documents you'll need:
 - * All couples will need to show the Parish Clerk or Rector their passport as proof of nationality. If you don't have a passport we find out what the other documents are which would be acceptable.
 - * If either or both of you are divorced, you will need to bring your decree absolute for the Rector to see.
 - * You may also be asked to provide evidence of your connection to the church, such as utility bills which show you live or have lived in the parish, or your parents' marriage certificate if they were married here, for example.
