

Today's Mass Notices

We welcome Lily Koyer

to be baptised at our service this morning. We welcome her, her family and friends.

Children are welcome here

Please do not worry about them making noise or moving around – you are here and are welcome. Junior Church is happening in the hall during the service. In the meantime, they are very welcome to make the most of their area at the back of the church.

Making yourself comfortable

Toilets in the Parish Centre are available throughout the service. Please join us for refreshments in the Parish Centre after the service.

Readings

Amos 6:1a, 4-7

Thus says the LORD, the God of hosts: Alas for those who are at ease in Zion, and for those who feel secure on Mount Samaria! Alas for those who lie on beds of ivory, and lounge on their couches, and eat lambs from the flock, and calves from the stall; who sing idle songs to the sound of the harp, and like David improvise on instruments of music; who drink wine from bowls, and anoint themselves with the finest oils, but are not grieved over the ruin of Joseph! Therefore they shall now be the first to go into exile, and the revelry of the loungers shall pass away.

Psalm 146 Hymn 540

I Timothy 6:6-19

There is great gain in godliness combined with contentment; for we brought nothing into the world, so that we can take nothing out of it; but if we have food and clothing, we will be content with these. But those who want to be rich fall into temptation and are trapped by many senseless and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil, and in their eagerness to be rich some have wandered away from the faith and pierced themselves with many pains. But as for you, man of God, shun all this; pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of the eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses. In the presence of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who in his testimony before Pontius Pilate made the good confession, I charge you to keep the commandment without spot or blame until the manifestation of our Lord Jesus Christ, which he will bring about at the right time – he who is the blessed and only Sovereign, the King of kings and Lord of lords. It is he alone who has immortality and dwells in unapproachable light, whom no one has ever seen or can see; to him be honour and eternal dominion. Amen. As for those who in the present age are rich, command them not to be haughty, or to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches, but rather on God who richly provides us with everything for our enjoyment. They are to do good, to be rich in good works, generous, and ready to share, thus storing up for themselves the treasure of a good foundation for the future, so that they may take hold of the life that really is life.

Luke 16:19-31

Jesus told this parable to those among the Pharisees who loved money: ‘There was a rich man who was dressed in purple and fine linen and who feasted sumptuously every day. And at his gate lay a poor man named Lazarus, covered with sores, who longed to satisfy his hunger with what fell from the rich man’s table; even the dogs would come and lick his sores. The poor man died and was carried away by the angels to be with Abraham. The rich man also died and was buried. In Hades, where he was being tormented, he looked up and saw Abraham far away with Lazarus by his side. He called out, “Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water and cool my tongue; for I am in agony in these flames.” But Abraham said, “Child, remember that during your lifetime you received your good things, and Lazarus in like manner evil things; but now he is comforted here, and you are in agony. Besides all this, between you and us a great chasm has been fixed, so that those who might want to pass from here to you cannot do so, and no one can cross from there to us.” The man who had been rich said, “Then, father, I beg you to send him to my father’s house – for I have five brothers – that he may warn them, so that they will not also come into this place of torment.” Abraham replied, “They have Moses and the prophets; they should listen to them.” He said, “No, father Abraham; but if someone goes to them from the dead, they will repent.” Abraham said to him, “If they do not listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be convinced even if someone rises from the dead.””

Guildford Care Free Day this Sunday

There are a number of road closures in the town centre this Sunday.

Macmillan Bring & Buy and Coffee Morning – plus Lunch!

This Friday we will be holding our Bring & Buy Coffee Morning for Macmillan. There will be the usual delicious coffee and cakes from 10:30am and a two-course lunch from 11:30am. Please bring along your donations of new/nearly new gifts, together with your baked goods and produce you could donate. Come together and bring your friends to raise money for this charity that does so much for cancer patients and their families.

Harvest Lunch / Dedication on Sunday 9th October

We will be celebrating harvest festival and the dedication of the church on Sunday 9th October with 10am Mass & Junior Church followed by a lunch. Tickets for the lunch are available now and are £10 which includes a soft drink and tea/coffee – children under 12 are free. If you would like to bring your own wine/beer, please feel free to do so. Please let us know when you buy them whether you have any particular dietary requirements.

At 6:30pm that day we will celebrate the glorious service that is Choral Evensong where we shall be joined by the choir of St Peter & St Paul, Nutfield. They will be singing the music of Vaughan Williams. Do come and make them feel welcome.

Knitted Remembrance Poppies

I would like to decorate the altar of St George and war memorial with knitted red poppies for Remembrance this year. Do you knit? Would you be interested in having a go and in helping? We have patterns if you need them – you will find them at the back of church. These would then go onto a netting and look very effective for our Act of Remembrance. Please let Fr Neil or Cath know if you might be happy to help.

Salvation Army Foodbank

The Salvation Army are now running a fortnightly Community Foodbank Hub where families can come for a coffee and collect any food and/or clothes they may need. As well as donations of tinned and packet foods, they are asking for new/nearly new children's and babies' clothes. Please leave in the box in church if you are able to help.

Good Cause for September - Challengers

Challengers is a local charity providing inclusive, fun and safe places where all disabled children and young people can spend time with their friends. Aside from being fun, play is essential for a child's cognitive, physical, social and mental wellbeing and development. Through play, children learn to build confidence, self-esteem, creativity and how to interact with others. Sadly too many disabled young people miss out on play every day. There are many barriers stopping disabled children from playing – from physical impairments and a lack of accessible play facilities, to time, money and support.

That's where Challengers comes in ... it removes these barriers by providing truly inclusive play and leisure that everyone can enjoy and join in with, no matter how complex their needs are. Challengers now helps more than 1000 disabled children and young people to play and have fun every year.

£10 could provide a worker with an introduction to Sing Language lesson.

£30 could buy enough puzzles to keep one of its schemes quizzical for a whole year!

£50 could pay for a therapeutic cushion, perfect for the sensory room..

Please support Challengers by using the card machine, the wallbox or making a bank transfer.
